
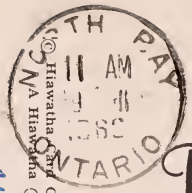
LITTLE STONE CHURCH
(Congregational)
Mackinac Island, Michigan

The center memorial window portrays the work of the Rev. William M. Ferry in charge of the Presbyterian Indian Mission from 1823-1834. Equally beautiful are the memorial windows portraying Robert Stuart, Resident Manager of the American Fur Co. and his Clerks, and Schusco, the Indian Conjuror who was converted under Rev. Ferry.

Photos by Lucy Gridley

© Hiawatha Art Co. 1966 Mackinaw City, Mich. 49701
A Hiawatha ® product. All Rights reserved.

36649-H



Post Card

We are returning home a trip to Michigan and a visit with her sisters and other relatives at her old home town of Sturgis Mich. where we visited for a day at our cottage on Corey Lake. Hope you are well. We are all fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sweetser
Cumberland Center
Maine